Staff Officer's Orientation

G-3 Force Protection

6 Oct 05

G-3 Force Protection

Where & What We Do

•Provide on-site/off-site assessments, identify risks and recommen allowing Commanders to employ solutions that deter hostile acts a Department of Defense personnel, resources, and facilities within Support Command AOR

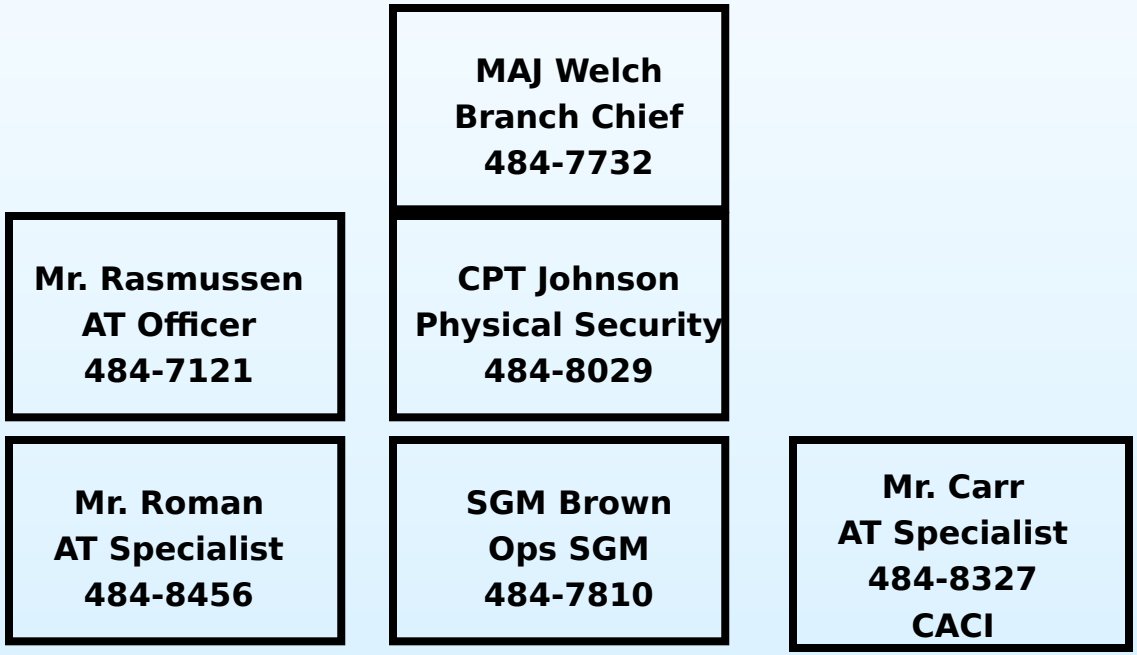
Location: Panzer Kaserne, Building 3029, Rm. 120

Email: robert.rasmussen@hq.21tsc.army.mil

Organizational Structure



Major Responsibilities

- Serve as the CG eyes and ears on 21st TSC FP related matters
- Continually educate soldiers and leaders about Force Protection
- Provide assistance to unit Force Protection Officers
- Conduct vulnerability assessments
  - Fort to Port/Port to Fort missions
  - Special events
- Provide assistance with FP assessments/plans
- Identify areas of improvement
- Provide FP guidance to commanders
- Act as liaison with host nation authorities
- On-site FP officers
- Member of Consequence Management (CM) team and Liaison for Weapons of Mass Destruction events

Three Most Important Things to Remember About Force Protection

- Do not plan off-sites, large gatherings, staff rides or special events c without first completing a force protection assessment or contacting protection branch for guidance and assistance.

- Our Web Site: http://www.21tsc.army.mil/ForceProtection/default.htm

- Required Level I training: http://www.awareness.org Password: awa
  - All Soldiers, DAC, Contractors, Local Nationals, and Family Mem years old and older